Statuettes were also announced for the directors and writers of Jerry Maguire, Top Gun, Rocky and The Good, the Bad and the Ugly as the most enduring classics of 1996, 1986, 1976 and 1966. R. Kelly, Kenny Loggins, and Rose Royce won the Vintage Soundtrack Song awards.

A full table of nominees and winners is below.

Other highlights: Top Gun won the most awards (3), and two films starring Eli Wallach won statuettes. Multiple nominees included two John Hughes films, two with Clint Eastwood (including VFA winner The Good, the Bad and the Ugly), and two films based on the works of Stephen King.

About the Vintage Film Awards

Some films get better with age is the motto of The Vintage Film Awards, founded in 2015 with the mission of giving recognition to films with continuing impact on society – many of which were ignored by the major awards committees when they were first released. Each year, awards will be given to films released 20, 30, 40 and 50 years ago.

Shortlists for the 3rd Vintage Film Awards, honouring the films of 1997, 1987, 1977 and 1967, will be announced shortly; email jr@vintagefilmawards to be notified.
